Community Church's Commitment To You In This Partnership

We commit to providing an atmosphere for you to develop strong relationships with other believers

We commit to providing an atmosphere for you to develop in your commitment and relationship with Christ.

We commit to grow and dream and try new methods to better serve people

We commit to releasing you in your leadership giftings; building you up but not burning you out.

We commit to being involved in the life of the greater community and caring for its needs.

We commit to being missional in our approach to ministry

We commit that we will be generous as a church tithing and using our finances wisely to care about the needy and make the name of Christ famous.

We commit to praying for you daily and continually seeking direction from The Holy Spirit for our church
